10. For the purpose of execution of online trade-in, the repurchase value of customer's Old device is determined by Foxway OU, registration number: 12703942, address: Killustiku Põik 1, Vahi 60534, Estonia (hereinafter – Partner).
11. The amount of the respective trade-in value and Bonus will be provided to the customer in the form of repayment after the customer sends his/her Old device to the Partner.
12. In order to receive the repayment after purchase of the Promotion good, the customer shall visit website for trade-in, namely, www.tagasiost.ee in Estonia, www.atpirkums.lv in Latvia or www.senainauja.lt in Lithuania, indicate IMEI code or Serial number (only for products without sim-card) of the purchased Promotion good, information on purchase and perform self-evaluation of the trade-in value of his/her Old device and finish registration on the website within 7 days from the date of purchase of Promotion good. The customer acknowledges that this self-evaluation value is illustrative, approximate and it may fluctuate. The exact trade-in value will be established by the Partner.
13. After self-evaluation is carried out by the customer, he/she shall hand over his/her Old device and signed trade-in agreement to the assigned parcel delivery service for delivery of the Old device and agreement to the Partner within 14 days from the registration on website. The delivery is free of charge. In case the customer does not provide his/her Old device for trade-in or the signed trade-in agreement to the Partner by the indicated term, the customer will not be entitled to receive a repayment, including Bonus.
14. Before the customer hands over his/her Old device to the assigned parcel delivery service, the customer shall remove Old device from all associated customer accounts including but not limited to Google account (for all Android devices), Samsung Account (for Samsung devices), iCloud (for iOS devices), and make full factory reset on the Old device. The customer is recommended to create backup copy to avoid of losing valuable information.
15. It is expected that the Old device, which the customer provides for trade in, will be in used condition. Old device must not be in disassembled form. Old device must be in one piece as originally assembled by manufacturer. Old device and all of its parts must be original - no fake Old devices or Old devices with third party replacement parts will be accepted.
16. Only one Old device can be traded in to receive the Bonus.
17. The Old device value depends on the device's condition, model and market fluctuations. The Partner will evaluate the Old device, the customer's self-evaluation value and will either confirm or update the customer's self-evaluation value.
18. The customer will receive repayment in the amount of evaluation value confirmed or updated by the Partner within two business days after the evaluation has been performed by the Partner.
19. The customer shall check the terms and conditions that are available on the website for trade-in, namely, www.tagasiost.ee in Estonia, www.atpirkums.lv in Latvia and www.senainauja.lt in Lithuania, which will be applicable to the online trade-in transaction.
